

"I DON'T LIKE"
LEARNING TO EXPRESS
WHAT WE DON'T LIKE

A Lesson for Gestalt Language Processors

I DON'T LIKE IT!

It is hard to wake up early every morning. I don't like it.

THIS FISH SMELLS BAD

This fish smells bad. I don't like it.
Fish can have a strong smell that we don't enjoy.

TOO LOUD!

This cafe is too loud. It hurts my ears. I don't like it! Cafes can have lots of people talking, cups clinking, and music playing. It is too much noise!

I DON'T LIKE WRITING ON PAPER

I don't like to write on paper. I prefer to type on a computer. It is faster.

I DON'T LIKE DOGS BARKING

I don't like dogs barking. It's scary!
When dogs bark loudly, it can feel very frightening. The sudden noise makes me feel worried and uncomfortable.

ORANGE OR APPLE JUICE

I like orange juice and I don't like apple juice.
Orange juice tastes better than apple juice to me!

WEATHER FEELINGS

I don't like it when it rains. I don't like to get wet! I like a sunny day!

NOW YOU CAN SAY "I DON'T LIKE IT" TOO!

Great job! You learned how to express what you don't like. Keep practicing and use "I don't like" whenever you need to share your feelings!
